Road Finale

Oklahoma, fresh off a Big 12 South victory over Texas A&M, plays its final regular season road game of the 2001 campaign when the Sooners travel to Texas Tech. The Red Raiders have won their last three games, including two on the road.

This was to have been Tech's final game of the season, but after the events of Sept. 11, the Red Raiders' schedule was adjusted to add a home game against Stephen F. Austin on Nov. 24.

Coaches Capsule

► Oklahoma's Bob Stoops (Iowa '83), winner of seven national coach of the year citations last season, is in his third year at the Sooner helm. He owns a record of 29-6, which includes a 1-1 ledger against Texas Tech. Stoops' OU teams are 17-0 at home, 8-4 on the road and 4-2 on neutral fields. A more in-depth look at Stoops can be found inside.

► Texas Tech's Mike Leach (BYU '83) is 13-9 in his second season with the Red Raiders. He was Oklahoma's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 1999. Leach is 0-1 against the Sooners as TTU's head coach.

The Polls

Oklahoma is ranked No. 3 in the Associated Press (media) poll and No. 4 in the ESPN/USA Today (coaches) poll. The Sooners were No. 3 in both polls through the Kansas game (Oct. 13), then moved up to No. 2 for two weeks in both before moving to the current spots.

Interviews

During the week, Oklahoma players are available after Monday and Tuesday practices and at the Tuesday luncheon. Assistant coaches are available during the luncheon and after practices Monday through Wednesday. Head coach Bob Stoops addresses the media at the Tuesday luncheon and after practice Monday through Thursday. After games, the Oklahoma locker room is closed. Coaches and players will be made available outside the locker room area. Contact a member of the media relations staff for assistance.

Butkus Announcement Coming Thursday

The Downtown Athletic Club of Orlando is scheduled to announce the three finalists for the Butkus Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top linebacker, Thursday, Nov. 15, at 11 a.m., CST. Oklahoma's Rocky Calmus was a finalist for the award last season and is on the semi-finalist list this season.

Next Week

Oklahoma concludes regular season play next Saturday when the Sooners host Oklahoma State in the annual renewal of the Bank of Oklahoma Bedlam series, presented by the Oklahoma Ford Dealers. Kickoff is set for 2:30 p.m. The Sooner seniors will be recognized in pre-game ceremonies.

■ Four for 100

Oklahoma entered this season with just two receivers who had 100 career receptions - 114 by wide receiver Eddie Hinton (1966-68) and 104 by tight end Stephen Alexander (1994-97). Now, four current Sooners have hit 100 receptions or will soon.

Wide receiver Antwone Savage is at 108, running back Quentin Griffin at 100, tight end Trent Smith at 99 and wide receiver Curtis Fagan at 97.

You OUght to Know
Rocky Calmus now has 400 career tackles to rank No. 5 at Oklahoma.

The Series

Oklahoma leads the series, 6-2, including a 2-1 advantage in Lubbock. One of the previous games was played on a neutral field when the Sooners notched a 41-10 victory over Tech in the 1993 John Hancock Bowl at El Paso, Texas.

OU's Most Recent Game

A review of the most recent outing, a 31-10 win over Texas A&M ...

- Oklahoma piled up 352 total yards as compared to just 132 for the Aggies. The Sooner special teams snuffed out an A&M punt and scored on a fake field goal to make it a complete performance by OU.
- OU's Heisman candidates, Roy Williams and Rocky Calmus, had 11 and 10 tackles, respectively, as the Sooners limited A&M to just five first downs for the game.
- A&M's lone touchdown came on an interception return.
- Nate Hybl completed 25-of-38 passes for 195 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. The junior also rushed for a six-pointer.
- OU punter Jeff Ferguson averaged 43.4 yards on seven punts with two downed inside the five, including one of 63 yards.
- PK Tim Duncan rushed for a 10-yard touchdown and also made his only field goal attempt (35 yards) and all four of his field goal tries.

Another Great Sooner Season

This is the 32nd time Oklahoma has won at least nine games. In 25 seasons, the Sooners have turned that nine into 10 or more victories. It is worth noting that Oklahoma has not posted back-to-back double-digit victory seasons since 1986 and 1987.

An Offense With Its Own Identity

OU's dominant defense is a unit that can hog headlines, but the Sooner offense has produced at least 329 total yards in five straight games, including three outings that exceeded 400 yards.

Let Us Count the Ways

Oklahoma has scored touchdowns in a seven different ways this season...

- Rushing vs. North Carolina, Air Force, North Texas, Kansas St., Texas, Kansas, Baylor, Tulsa, A&M
- Passing vs. Air Force, North Texas, Kansas State, Kansas, Baylor, Nebraska, Tulsa, A&M
- Kickoff return vs. North Carolina
- Interception return vs. North Carolina, Texas
- Fumble return vs. North Carolina, Air Force, Kansas State
- Fake punt vs. Kansas State
- Fake field goal vs. Texas A&M

Seeing Red

Of it's 55 trips into the red zone, Oklahoma has scored on 44. The Sooner opponents have been in the red zone 17 times, or roughly 40% of the times OU has scored from there.

Double Digit Punts

When Texas A&M punted 10 times in last Saturday's game, it marked the fourth time in 10 games this season that the Sooner opponent had to punt the ball away at least 10 times.

The Boys of November

Under Bob Stoops, Oklahoma is 9-1 in the month of November and has won its last five games played in the 11th month.

Playing by the Rules

In two of its first three games, OU exceeded 100 yards in penalties, but since posting 120 against North Texas in game No. 3, the Sooners have cut back dramatically. The high since then was 75 against Baylor and in the other six games of that stretch, OU has not had more than 56.

- Never before have two QBs cracked the school's top 10 list for completion percentage, but that could change. Jason White completed 73-of-113 for a rate of 64.6%. That's 0.1% behind Josh Heupel's record of 64.7% set last season. Nate Hybl is at 62.5% (140-of-227), No. 3 on the list.
- OU averaged at least 40 punting yards in each game except Texas (39.9) and Nebraska (38.6) when the team executed late pooches (by Tim Duncan). Opponents averaged 40 yards just five times.

- OU has 23 scoring drives of less than two minutes in 2001, 84 over the last three years.
- OU has at least one TD from a unit other than the offense in 14 of Bob Stoops' 35 games.
- LB Rocky Calmus, P Jeff Ferguson, LS Ben Panter, WR Josh Norman and OT Frank Romero are team leaders in games played at 46. Panter's 46 straight starts lead the squad. Of the regular position players, the longest starting strings belong to Romero, SS Roy Williams and DE Cory Heinecke at 27.
- As part of the OU's $100 million Great Expectations: The Campaign for Sooner Sports, Memorial Stadium will be upgraded. The $65 million project will renovate facility structures and amenities, replace current seating, and add new seating - including 2,200 club seats and 27 sky suites to bring capacity to more than 80,000. Work will start just after this season and be complete in time for the 2003 season.

*“Oklahoma: Best-prepared team in America
every time they step on the field.”*

-- CNNSI.com

Oklahoma head coach Bob Stoops has coached in 13 bowl games, including two as a head coach.

For many, those accomplishments would read rather nicely for a career. For Stoops, it represents a good start.

At the tender coaching age of 40, OU's head coach led his team to the 2000 national championship and emerged as the consensus national coach of the year.

Stoops shrugs at the overwhelming nature of his early success while keeping himself and his team focused on the future. Still, what is done is done, and the early returns are more than impressive ...

• He is just the second coach to lead his first two OU teams to bowls (Chuck Fairbanks was the other).

• He attained his 25th victory in his 30th game. The only other OU coaches to do so more quickly were Bud Wilkinson (25th win in 29 games) and Barry Switzer (25th win in 27th games).

• In 17 home games, his Oklahoma teams have out-scored their opponents 667-165.

• His teams are 9-1 against top 10 teams and won those games by an average of 16.0 points.

• Every home game of his OU tenure has been a sellout. The average attendance at Memorial Stadium during Stoops' tenure is 75,055. The facility has a listed capacity of 72,765.

If not for the meteoric pace, Stoops' resume would read like a textbook rise to a head coaching position.

A four-year starter as a player at Iowa, he began his coaching career in a volunteer capacity at his alma mater in 1983. He worked his way through the ranks (see the chart at left) until he became defensive coordinator at Kansas State from 1991-95. There he played a key role in one of the most impressive turnarounds in college football history. During his final four seasons there, K-State posted a 35-12 record and played in three bowl games.

Then came a three-year stint as Florida's defensive coordinator from 1996-98. It was during that time that the national spotlight focused sharply on his accomplishments and the door opened for a head coaching post.

At Oklahoma he has restored the tradition of Sooner football, while also carving out a niche' for this era and these teams.

OU employs a balanced and unpredictable offense (Sooner receivers rushed for 261 yards last season) and the kind of impenetrable defense (No. 5 in total defense and scoring defense in 2000) one might expect from a coach who spent much of his career on that side of the ball.

Not surprisingly, Sooner fans love their head coach and are tangible in their affection -- every home game of Stoops' tenure has been a sellout.

To paraphrase Stoops' post-Orange Bowl comment, Oklahoma is indeed "back" and it's a return that not so coincidentally mirrors the tenure of the Sooner coach.

OU's Southwestern Bell Big 12 Players of the Week

Aug. 25 Rocky Calmus (defense)

Sept. 1 Quentin Griffin (offense)

Oct. 6 Roy Williams (defense)

Jammal Brown, a redshirt freshman, saw his first significant action of this season when he played several series at right tackle against Nebraska and has been a regular reserve since that game.

Rocky Calmus leads the Sooners with 93 tackles.

- Six double digit tackle games, including 12 against Texas A&M.
- Only the fifth Sooner to reach 400 career tackles and he has 16 double-digit tackle games for his career, including three this season.
- His 53 career tackles for loss rate as a school record, breaking the mark of 44 set by Brian Bosworth.
- Calmus has 32 "touches" during his career -- 23 deflections, six fumble recoveries and three interceptions. Of the four takeaways he has returned (had no return on one of the interceptions), he has averaged 28.7 yards with three touchdowns.

C Vince Carter, a true freshman, made his first start vs. K-State and has started every game since then.

WR Mark Clayton made first career start vs. K-State and is enjoying a remarkable freshman campaign ...

- Has 35 receptions this season to set a freshman record at OU. Antwone Savage had 31 in 1999.
- Only wide receiver on the team with a catch in every game this season.
- Tied Quentin Griffin's Oklahoma freshman record with eight receptions against Baylor. His 108 receiving yards in that game rank No. 2 by a Sooner freshman.

OG Howard Duncan has won a national championship in every year of his collegiate competition -- two that he won at Butler County Community College and one that he won at Oklahoma.

- Moved from right tackle to left guard prior to the Kansas game.

K Tim Duncan set a school record for points by a kicker with 16 vs. Tulsa ...

- Has made seven consecutive field goals.
- Has 278 career points and is only the 15th Sooner to reach 200.
- This season, he has drilled 41-of-43 PATs (miss came from 35 yards following OU penalties, another was blocked).
- He has made 100 of his last 102 PATs and now ranks No. 4 in school history with 39 field goals.
- Scored the second TD of his career with a 10-yard rush on a fake FG against Texas A&M.

FS Brandon Everage had a career-high 12 tackles at Air Force.

- Has 49 tackles this season as compared to 50 during the entire 2000 campaign.
- Eleven tackles and two fumbles forced at Kansas.
- Got his first career sack against Kansas State.
- Has his first interception of the season against Nebraska, and added five tackles.

WR/PR Curtis Fagan had no collegiate punt returns prior to the North Texas game. Now, in four games in that role, Fagan has 40 returns for an average of 7.4 yards.

- He needs four touchdown receptions to reach 14 for his career and a Sooner record.
- Needs just three receptions to reach 100.

P Jeff Ferguson is a do-it-all punter ...

- Averaging 43.9 yards with 18 kicks downed inside the 20 and 10 inside the 10.
- Could become only the second Sooner to average at least 40 yards in each of his four years (Michael Keeling accomplished the feat 1979-82).
- With a 42.9-yard career average, the senior is attempting to break a 60-year-old Oklahoma mark, Jack Jacobs' career punting standard of 42.3 yards, which was set from 1939-41.
- Of his 218 career punts, 66 (nearly one-third) have pinned the opponent inside the 20.
- His 71-yarder at Air Force was the second-longest of his career. He has 45 of 50 yards or longer in his career, including 16 this season.
- Opponents average 9.3 yards per return, but that number is misleading. Minus an 89 yarder by North Carolina's Michael Waddell, the foes average just 5.3. Just 30 of his 59 punts have been returned.

OT Jerod Fields is a true freshman tackle who got his first collegiate start at Nebraska and has started every game since that time.

RB Quentin Griffin holds the school record for receptions in consecutive games with 27. The streak is ongoing and covers every game of his career.

- Rushed 11 times for 90 yards against Tulsa, while also catching eight passes for 72 yards. Rushed for three touchdowns and scored a fourth on a reception. It was the sixth multi-TD game of his career.
- Has 30 career touchdowns (27 rushing, 3 receiving).
- Since rushing for just six yards at Kansas, he has gained at least 50 yards in four straight games and averaged 4.7 yards per carry.

Sept. 8 @ Norman • No. 3 Oklahoma 37, North Texas 10

Oklahoma won, but frowns prevailed on the faces of coaches and players after the game. Thirteen penalties and three turnovers lost tainted the lopsided OU win. Roy Williams was brilliant on defense with two interceptions, four pass deflections and one fumble forced. Nate Hybl connected on 28-of-40 passes for 350 yards with two touchdowns and one interception.

Sept. 29 @ Norman • No. 3 Oklahoma 38, No. 11 Kansas State 37

The game many thought would be a defensive struggle yielded 75 points and 771 yards. The big-play Sooners, who got two of their scores on long passes, led 14-0 and 35-14, yet found themselves having to endure one, last desperation heave by Kansas State to win. Antwone Savage caught two touchdown passes and threw for another.

Oct. 6 @ Dallas • No. 3 Oklahoma 14, No. 5 Texas 3

The annual Red River Shootout went to Oklahoma for a second consecutive year in a game dominated by the defenses. OU menaced Texas with five sacks and four interceptions, including one that Teddy Lehman returned two yards for a touchdown with 2:01 remaining. The Longhorns generated just 27 rushing yards and 225 total yards, some 201 below their season average. Jason White replaced an injured Nate Hybl as OU's quarterback and completed 16-of-23 passes.

Oct. 13 @ Lawrence, Kan. • No. 3 Oklahoma 38, Kansas 10

Kansas claimed a 3-0 lead, but the Jayhawks then watched as Oklahoma reeled off 38 unanswered points and a convincing victory. The Sooner defense was stifling as 14 of Kansas' 18 possessions ended in four or fewer plays. The Jayhawks had lost three fumbles all season heading into the game, but lost that many against OU in the first half. Jason White took over as Oklahoma's quarterback in the second period. He completed 18-of-29 passes for 151 yards with four touchdowns and two interceptions. He also rushed 12 times for 117 yards. Trent Smith set school records with 11 receptions and four touchdown catches.

In his first collegiate start, QB Jason White completed 32-of-44 passes for 343 yards and one touchdown to lead Oklahoma to a 33-17 Homecoming win. Mark Clayton tied an OU freshman record with eight receptions, which went for 108 yards. The Sooners marched 80 yards in 10 plays on their first drive to claim a 7-0 lead. Baylor's Randy Davis returned the ensuing kickoff 93 yards for a touchdown to tie the game before OU reeled off 20 unanswered points to put the game out of reach. Rocky Calmus led the defense with 10 tackles, while Roy Williams logged nine stops to go with five pass break-ups and one interception.

Oct. 27 @ Lincoln, Neb. • No. 3 Nebraska 20, No. 2 Oklahoma 10

The two teams played a defensive masterpiece, but in the end, Nebraska had enough big plays to win. A 63-yard trick play, featuring a pass from receiver Michael Stuntz to quarterback Eric Crouch, with 6:17 remaining sealed the win for the Cornhuskers. Both OU quarterbacks, starter Jason White and back-up Nate Hybl, missed snaps in the game due to injury. Hybl finished the game.

Nov. 3 @ Norman • No. 3 Oklahoma 58, Tulsa 0

In a game originally scheduled for Sept. 15, Oklahoma woke up from a slow first quarter and routed its in-state rival. The Sooners led just 3-0 after one period, but once Quentin Griffin scored on a seven-yard run in the second frame, it ignited a stretch in which OU scored TDs on five straight possessions. Griffin scored four touchdowns, three via the rush and one on a reception from Nate Hybl, who was 36-of-48 for 347 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions. The Oklahoma defense stymied Tulsa all day and only two TU possessions migrated into Sooner territory.

Nov. 10 @ Norman • No. 3 Oklahoma 31, Texas A&M 10

Texas A&M jumped to a 10-0 first-quarter lead, but the Sooners roared back with a stifling defense and an offense that grew stronger as the game progressed. Oklahoma finally took the lead when PK Tim Duncan rushed 10 yards off a faked field goal with 9:07 left in the third quarter. Nate Hybl then ran for a score and threw for another, his second of the day. The Oklahoma defense got 11 tackles from Roy Williams and 10 from Rocky Calmus, and gave the Aggies just five first downs for the game.
